SEMINAL WEAKNESS
Or Involuntary Seminal Emissions the consequence of self abuse
A vice so prevalent and destructive among the young of both sexes to a certain extent as to require the attention of every individual who has the welfare of his fellow beings at heart
Particularly is it necessary that the young should be informed of the evil consequences which inevitably follow the indulgence in this destructive habit Thousands annually fall victims to this pernicious practice owing to the ignorance that prevails in regard to the disease many parents not dreaming of the cause of the ill health of their children
Young men who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in when alone a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school the effects of which are nightly felt even when asleep and if not cured renders marriage impossible and destroys both mind and body should apply immediately
What a pity that a young man the hope of his country the darling of his parents should be snatched from all the prospects and pleasures of life by the consequences of deviating from the path of nature and indulging in a certain secret habit Such persons must before contemplating marriage reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote conjugal happiness Indeed without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage the prospect before them continually becoming darker and more gloomy the shades of melancholy settling upon the mind and extending their influence over the whole system
In such cases it is self evident that the person affected cannot consult his friends and family physician without confessing the cause of his disorder thereby subjecting himself to the ridicule and contempt of his friends and family or to the expense of a distant journey to consult some physician whose name is a stranger

THE LAST CAMPAIGN.

The Democratic majority are trying to hide [illegible] by talking about the Republican [illegible] and the Democratic majority are trying to hide their own corruption by talking about the Republican corruption. Both parties are corrupt, and the people will have to make an issue of it before the Democratic majority will attempt reform. If the Democrats [illegible] honestly for reform they will [illegible] and will have a right to expect success. But if the Democrats are only trying to make political capital out of the corruption of the Republicans, they will fail. Public sentiment is against all such [illegible] and will be so long as it is against the Republicans. Talk will not do it. The Democrats must [illegible] what the Democrats will do. The Democrats will make a great blow with their claims to [illegible] the civil service [illegible] that they [illegible] with purity. Let us see what they have done in the South, where they have had control. Where they have had a majority they have [illegible] themselves to [illegible] and have [illegible] but have the body and [illegible] the corruption they upheld.

Nothing [illegible] is implied by [illegible] parties [illegible] that we have said of the [illegible] of Washington and elsewhere by [illegible] leaders of both parties in the matter of purifying the public service. We have said and we repeat that they are [illegible] evils, but it is simply ridiculous to assume that the Democratic party [illegible] from that. The corruption [illegible] appointment inherited by Democratic officials from the Democracy is not [illegible] and will be as long as it continues the fruitful source of [illegible] corruption. Any reform that does not [illegible] cutting it up root and branch is a delusion and fraud.

And about as empty is the pretense that the Democratic House is doing something worthy of notice in the way of reform in the matter of public expenditures. It is not a few salaries nor many salaries nor high salaries that wastes the public treasure. That item is but a drop in the bucket. The trouble is with the system which introduces a fifty per cent job into every contract great or small, for the furnishing of supplies and transportation to the government. Army contractors, and Indian contractors, and navy contractors, and mail contractors and every other [illegible] contractor who are robbing the people and paying for the privilege with political services—these are the vampires that are sucking the blood of the nation. Take away the inducement and the opportunity for these things, and the work of reform is well nigh accomplished. Leave them untouched, and the cutting off a clerk here and a deputy there is the merest trifling with the subject.

THE WINNEMUCCA RAILWAY.

On last Monday morning we gave our readers such information as we then possessed regarding the proposition of the Central Pacific Railway Company to build the Winnemucca & Columbia Railway and have since presented such additional facts concerning it as have been received. In general terms the proposition is now before the country though the bill has not yet been introduced as the basis of the [illegible] proposed legislation has not yet arrived. The remarks made by Mr. Pengra and letter which appears in our [illegible] this morning are well worthy of consideration. We must first comment double [illegible] disinterested efforts to secure Eastern railway connection by the Winnemucca route and we are pleased to see that he has generously offered to give up the company's franchises and rights to any one will build that road no matter whether the connection with existing lines be made near Pigeon or in the Umpqua valley or [illegible] Like all of us he wants a railway into Oregon. He has worked persistently for years to this end and having at length secured the attention of the Central Pacific [illegible] any single [illegible] proposition has [illegible] personal interest for the general good and labors in disinterestedly with the one [illegible] railway connection.

We regret that the absence of the details contained in Mr Huntington's [illegible] statements on placing the matter before our readers in definite form. The people of Oregon appreciate the need of the East in connection and would be ready to vote their assent, we feel assured to any reasonable proposition for the immediate construction of the road but before they can be expected to make up their minds to any course of action they must have a full and particular statement of the matter on which they are expected to act.

[illegible] feature of the plan [illegible] three [illegible] as discovered [illegible] Mr Huntington's letter to Mr Pengra which deserves special notice. We infer that the plan [illegible] up the [illegible] Oregon [illegible] Central Company have never [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]
